Charity Golf Classic
May 18th, 2015
Friar's Head
Baiting Hollow, N.Y.

Mission Statement:

The Ann Liguori Foundation raises funds and awareness for a variety of organizations including not-for-profits that work in the field of cancer prevention, research and cancer care including the American Cancer Society, St. Judes Children's Research Hospital and Kids Need More, a camp for children with cancer and their siblings which takes place every August on Shelter Island. In addition, the ALF helps a variety of charities and people in need on the East End of Long Island including IGHL, East End Hospice & Southampton Hospital. The ALF Sports Media Scholarship is given annually by New York Women In Communications and this year's recipient is Nicole Gartner of Stony Brook University.

2015 BUSINESS HONOREE:

Vincent Ponte, Ponte Equities

Vincent F. Ponte is a successful third generation entrepreneur with commercial interests in a diverse range of industries. After graduating college, Vincent began his career in the family owned real estate business, Ponte Equities, Inc., which was originally started by his father and three brothers in the mid 1950's. Vincent remains an active principal in the family real estate business, which is currently owned by Vincent and his cousins. Ponte Equities, Inc. has real estate holdings in the Tribeca neighborhood of New York City as well as properties in New Jersey and Florida. Vincent is currently involved in the development of these properties.

Vincent's other commercial interests include being an owner of Diehard/P.E.S.T Exterminating which provides pest extermination to small and large businesses throughout the Tri-State area. Vincent is also a partner in Lincoln Land Services, which is a title company with services throughout the United States.

In 1997, Vincent, along with his cousins, founded All American Recycling Corp. which has grown to become the largest privately held recycling company in New Jersey as well as having a facility in Long Island, NY. All American is headquartered in Jersey City and serves a diverse business base throughout the metropolitan region.

His family and giving back to the community are of the utmost importance to Vincent; his personal mission is to help as many people as possible share in the American Dream. Vincent donates to numerous charitable organizations through his businesses and personally. Vincent, who is a member of the Young Presidents Organization, resides in New York City with his wife, Bonnie, and their two children, Joseph and Taylor.
