The Hamptons Rope Collection, consisting of twelve sophisticated pieces that are handcrafted in sterling silver or 18k vermeil, offer a gorgeous collection that consists of bracelets, earrings, rings, necklaces and cufflinks with sand from your favorite beach or golf course. All Dune Jewelry designs can be customized with a sentimental element or sand from one's favorite golf course, beach or travel adventure. The sand can either be selected from Dune's massive Sandbank that you can view online (www.dunejewelry.com/sand-and-elements) or you also have the option to send in your own memory for your own custom design.

Ann has also collaborated on the Dune Golf Collection(dunejewelry.com/collections/golf-jewelry-accessories) which features ball markers, divot repair tools, cufflinks, key chain and wine stoppers. Every design is handmade to order in the USA and most can be engraved with a meaningful message. There are gift wrapping options also available.

"Now more than ever is a perfect time to take a moment to reflect on positive memories and special travel experiences," says Holly Daniels Christensen, Founder & CEO of Dune Jewelry. "With Dune Jewelry you can personalize and customize your design with sand or grass from a favorite golf course or an iconic destination you hope to travel to one day. Something from the Hamptons Rope or Golf Collection makes a perfect gift for that special someone."

Liguori enjoys hearing the feedback from golfers who love having the memory of their favorite golf or travel experience as part of a piece of jewelry from the Hamptons Rope Collection or a Dune Golf item. "These collections make a thoughtful gift for the special person in your life. The Hamptons Rope Collection can be worn with either a casual wardrobe or more evening wear. Women tell me they love the versatility of the collection," says Liguori. "And the golf items make perfect gifts or awards for tournament winners, member guest awards and personal gifts for your favorite golfer. It's a great way to savor the memory of something very special."
